PREFACE.

THE following paper on the SPENCER FAMILY is the result of a careful examination of the Colonial Records of Massachusetts and Connecticut. The records of Middlesex and Essex Counties, and of Cambridge, Lynn, and Salem, Massachusetts, Hartford, Haddam, Middletown, and Cromwell, Connecticut. The early pages of this sketch could not have been written but for the researches in England of the eminent antiquary, Henry F. Waters, of Salem. We are also indebted for favors and valuable assistance to Charles J. Hoadly, LL.D., State Librarian of Connecticut, Hon. Richard P. Spencer, of Deep River, Connecticut, and others.

THE
THOMAS SPENCER FAMILY.

AMONG the wills proved before the Prerogative Court of Canterbury, at London, were those of FRANCIS SPENCER and wife MARGARET, of the parish of St. Giles, without Cripplegate, London, and RICHARD SPENCER, of London. For an abstract of these wills, as printed in the New England Historical and Genealogical Register, Vol. 46, p. 435, and Vol. 45, p. 231, we are indebted to the famous antiquary, Mr. Henry F. Waters:—

“ Francis Spencer of St. Giles without Cripplegate, London, citizen and brewer of London, 7 April 1636, proved 24 October 1636. My son Thomas Spencer shall, immediately after my decease, have, hold and enjoy, to him and his heirs forever all my houses, lands, tenements and hereditaments &c. in Hitchin, Herts, which for the most part I have already estated him in. To my three daughters, Susan, Elizabeth and Agnes, each, threescore six pounds, thirteen shillings and fourpence, at one and twenty or day of marriage. Other provision for son and daughters. The residue to wife Margaret whom I make and ordain full and sole executrix. And I appoint my uncle Richard Spenceer, citizen and haberdasher of London and brother Daniel Spenceer, citizen and grocer of London, to be overseers.”

 living in New England in 1648.

Paige's History of Cambridge, Massachusetts, page 6
 states that Michael Spencer owned land on the south s of the river, in that town, in 1635. His name appe among the list of “the inhabitants of the towne of Lyn to whom lands were granted in 1638. His name was fi fifth in the list, and he was given 30 acres.¹

We find this entry concerning Michael Spencer on Land Records of Hartford, Connecticut: —

Whether he actually resided in this house or not it is impossible to determine; but if he did, it was not for any great length of time, as about February, 1646, or soon after, he sold the house and lot to Peter Busieer.² He died some time prior to November, 1653, at which date is this entry on the Court Records of Essex County, Massachusetts:—

GARRARD, Gerard, Garret, Gerret, Jarret, or Jarrard SPENCER, as the name was variously spelled, was admitted one of the freemen of the Colony of Massachusetts Bay “the 9th of the first m^o 1636 or 1637.”² He was a resident of Cambridge in 1634, and owned land on the south side of the river.³ He soon removed to Lynn, and at “A Generall Courte, houlden at Boston, the 13th of the First Month @ 1638,” “Garret Spencer is granted the ferry at Linn for 2 yeares, taking 2^d for a single pson to the furthest place, & but a 1^d a pson for more to the furthest place, & but a 1^d for a single person to the nearest place.”⁴ He was one of the Jurymen from Lynn at a County Court held the 25 of the 10 month, 1638. In 1653 he was appointed administrator on the estate of his brother Michael Spencer of Lynn (see page 9). In June, 1656, he was chosen Ensign of the train band of Lynn,⁵ and in 1659 Grand Juror for Lynn.⁶ He soon after removed to Haddam. Con-

WILLIAM SPENCER is one of the eight men who are recorded as inhabitants, in 1632, of the young settlement of New Town, afterwards Cambridge.⁴ March 4, 1632-3, he took the freeman's oath, and was a Deputy to the General Court in March, 1634 and 35, September, 1636, April, May, and September, 1637, and March, 1637-8. In March, 1636-7, he was appointed "lieutenant of the military company of Newetowne," and was one of the five persons named in the charter of the "Military Company of Massa-

He soon removed to Hartford, Connecticut, where "At a Generall Meeting of the whole Towne the 23th Decembr 1639, Their was then chossen to order the affayrs of the Towne for one yeare, William Westhood William Spencer Nathaniel Warde John Moody."²

He is believed to have been the "Mr. Spencer" who was one of the Committee or Deputies to the General Court of Connecticut in April, August, September, and January, 1639, and April, 1640.³

In his will, which is dated May 4, 1640, and was probated March 4, 1640-1, he mentioned his wife, son Samuel, daughters Sarah and Elizabeth, and appointed "my Cosen Mathew Allen, my brother John Pratt and John Taylcoate * * * shall have the Ouersight of my Estate."⁴ In the inventory of his estate there is mentioned "land yet remayneing at Concord in the Bay."⁵

In Volume 1, of the Proprietors Records of Cambridge, Massachusetts, under date of 1635, it is recorded: —

He is supposed to be the Thomas Spencer who took the freeman's oath May 14, 1634.¹ Paige's "History of Cambridge," page 659, states that he was a resident of Cambridge as early as 1633, and his name appears among the list of persons who were to build a "pale" or fence around the common lands.²

In 1639 he had become a resident of Hartford, Connecticut, as is shown by the following : —

At a Particular Court held March 7, 1649-50, the appointment of Thomas Spencer as one of the sergeants of Hartford was confirmed.² He was chosen one of the chimney viewers of Hartford in 1650, Constable in 1657, and Surveyor of Highways in 1672. From the fact that he owned a piece of land in the Soldiers' Field, it is believed that he served in the Pequot War of 1637, as none but the soldiers of that war had grants made to them of

He was twice married. Of the first wife nothing is known. He married, second, September 11, 1645, SARAH BEARDING, daughter of Nathaniel Bearding, of Hartford.³

Sergeant Thomas Spencer died September 11, 1687, having evidently outlived his wife, as no mention is made of her in his will, which is to be found in Volume 4, pages 262 and 263, of Hartford Probate Records.

OBADIAH SPENCER, son of Sergeant Thomas Spencer (4), was admitted a freeman by the General Court of Connecticut May 20, 1658.² In October, 1669, he resided on the north side of the Little River in Hartford.³ He was elected one of the fence viewers in 1687, 1693, and 1694. SAMUEL SPENCER (Obadiah 5, Thomas 4) was born in Hartford, Connecticut; but there is no record of the date of his birth or baptism, and of his early history almost nothing is known. He was elected one of the hay-wards for the North Meadow in 1709, 1711, and 1712. By the will of his father Obadiah, he inherited one half of the homestead "in the Neck." This he sold, July 3, 1723, to Nathaniel Spencer¹ (probably his son, evidently in preparation for his removal to Middletown, where he had purchased, May 2, 1727, for £120, a tract of 83½ acres on the east side of the Connecticut River, near the village of Middle Haddam²). April 23, 1730, while still a resident of Hartford, he added to his lands in Middletown 101 acres,—this tract being 26¾ rods wide and two miles long.³ He soon removed to Middletown, and at a town meeting, held December 20, 1731, was elected a grand juror.

November 18, 1733, Samuel Spencer was admitted to full communion in the Congregational Church of the East Society in Middletown (now Portland), and the following month Corporal Samuel Spencer was elected one of the society's committee, which election was renewed the next year. He was one of the fourteen persons who organized the Haddam Neck Congregational Church, September 24, 1740, his name appearing third on the list.

His wife is believed to have been DEBORAH BECKLEY, daughter of John Beckley, of Wethersfield:⁴ but the dates of her birth, marriage, and death are all unknown.

A Deborah Spencer was admitted to full communion in the Haddam Neck Congregational Church, December 14, 1740, and this may have been the wife of Samuel.

Samuel Spencer died between April 20¹ and July 5, 1756, leaving the following will:—

JOHN SPENCER (Samuel 6, Obadiah 5, Thomas 4) was born in Hartford, Connecticut, October 10, 1696. He is supposed to have removed to Middletown at the same time as his father. By the will of his father, which was made April 3, 1750, John received the gift of two-thirds of his land, with the house and barn, and the remaining one third subject to the use of Samuel's daughter, Abigail. April 20, 1756, his father deeded him "one half of my land where I now Dwell."¹ Evidently John was not a believer in early marriages, as he was 45 years of age when he married, November 4, 1741, ELIZABETH TAYLOR.

Who her parents were, or where and when she was born, it has been impossible to learn. In the absence of proof to the contrary, John Spencer is believed to have been a farmer. In December, 1740 and 1747, he was elected surveyor of highways, grand juror in 1745, and hayward in 1748. The Middletown Records state that he died March 12, 1756; but as he qualified as executor of his father's will, which was probated July 5, 1756, this date of death is at least one year too early.

Administration was granted on his estate to his widow Elizabeth, July 4, 1757, and the inventory, which is dated April 2, 1757, shows property to the value of £227 15s. 11d., of which the house, barn, and 70 acres of land were valued at £171.² The administration account was accepted by the Probate Court April 2, 1770, and distribution was ordered of $\frac{2}{3}$ of the real estate of the deceased, — the remaining $\frac{1}{3}$ being under the incumbrance of Abigail

Spencer, sister of the deceased. His widow Elizabeth is believed to have spent the last years of her life with her son Samuel in the North Society of Middletown, now the town of Cromwell.

On the records of the Cromwell Congregational Church is this entry: "1807, January 31. Died the Widow Spencer aged 89 years." On a gravestone in the Cromwell Quarry Burying Ground is this inscription: "In memery of Mrs Elizabeth Spencer relict of Mr John Spencer who died June 30th AD. 1807, AEt 90."

There is no entry on the Church records to correspond with the date of death on the grave stone. The entries on the Church records appear in the order of date. The entry following that of Widow Spencer is dated February 17. We know of no other Widow Spencer in Middletown whose death could have been intended by the entry on the Church records. We are therefore inclined to accept this entry as being the true date of the death of Elizabeth (Taylor) Spencer.

SAMUEL SPENCER (John 7, Samuel 6, Obadiah 5, Thomas 4) was born in that part of the town of Middletown which lay east of the "Great River," October 20, 1744, and was baptized the following day.

February 19, 1771, he purchased in Middletown, North Society, now the town of Cromwell, for £88, two and one half acres of land, bounded north on land of Amos Savage, east on highway, south and west on land of Nathaniel Riley, with one half of the house thereon,¹ and six years later he purchased the other half of the house, and the same quantity of land adjoining on the south.² This property is believed to have been his homestead, and is situated on the west side of Main Street, and is the second house south of the one owned and occupied for many years by Capt. Edward Savage. The Spencer house had a gambrel roof, but within a few years has been very much altered, and its appearance greatly changed.

Samuel Spencer married, in Middletown (Upper Houses), May 23, 1771, MARTHA EELLS, born December 12, 1743, daughter of Nathaniel and Alice (White) Eells of Middletown.

At the annual town meeting, held December 13, 1784, he was elected to the office of tythingman, surveyor of highways in 1786, 1787, and 1788, grand juror in 1790; and from 1792 to 1806, both inclusive, he was elected leather sealer.

Samuel Spencer died in Middletown, October 12, 1813, only lacking a few days of being 74 years old. Martha (Eells) Spencer died February 19, 1821, aged 77.

She married, September 20, 1807, JOSEPH MORGAN, JR., of Ireland parish, town of West Springfield, Massachusetts. He was the only son of Joseph and Experience (Smith) Morgan, and was born in that town January 4, 1780. Joseph Morgan, Jr., resided in his native place until 1815, when, soon after the death of his father, he went to live in the adjoining town of Westfield. On the first day of January, 1817, he removed to Hartford, Connecticut, and became the proprietor of the "Exchange Coffee House." In April, 1829, he leased the City Hotel, where he remained until November, 1835, when he retired from business. As one of the founders, a director, and large
